

"The most enduring holiday purchase is a gift of art."

11 Galleries
all open 1 Night
in downtown Ithaca

December 1, 5 - 8pm

- 1 CSMA 330 E. State Street
Annual Open Show
 See all the art fit to hang in one of the largest annual juried group shows in Ithaca. A CSMA tradition, the exhibit features work by both well-known and emerging local artists working in oil, acrylic, watercolor, and other two-dimensional media.
 272-1474; Mon-Fri, 10 to 8
- 2 Titus Gallery 222 The Commons
Snow Views and Summer Shade Trees:
 Susan Booth Titus
 Watercolor landscapes by Susan Booth Titus.
 277-2649; Mon-Wed 10:30 to 6, Thu, Fri 10:30 to 7, Sat 10 to 6, Sun 12 to 4
- 3 Shangri La 156 The Commons
An Impressionistic Journey: Anne Marsden Morse Williams
 Anne Marsden Morse Williams is renowned throughout the US as a master of impressionistic landscapes, in a post-impressionistic fauvist-style similar to the later works of both Marc Chagall and Henri Matisse. Marsden is an alumna of Westtown Friends School and Connecticut College and received a Master of Fine Arts degree from Virginia Commonwealth University.
 272-6156; Mon 5 to 8, Tue, Wed 11:30 to 7, Thu 11:30 to 8, Fri, Sat 11:30 to 9, Sun 1 to 4
- 4 Art Bar Gallery 135 The Commons
Annual Group Show: Art Bar Artists 2006-07
 The annual exhibition of the diverse works of the new Art Bar artists is on view at the Art Bar Gallery. The mission of Ithaca Fine Chocolates is to promote contemporary artists and support art education through the sale of both Art Bars and original artworks.
 257-7954; Mon-Sat 11 to 6, Sun 12 to 5
- 5 Patrick J O'Conner Gallery 114 South Cayuga St.
 Newly opened in November 2006, the Patrick J. O'Connor Gallery portrays class and comfort and features the emotional and abstract works of the self-taught watercolor artist exclusively. Hours of operation are varied or by private appointment.
 280-3214 (for appointments and hours)

- 6 Handwork Gallery 102 West State Street
Silence in Autumn: Fernando Llosa
 Photographs by Fernando Llosa.
 273-9400; Mon-Wed, Sat 10 to 6, Thu, Fri 10 to 9, Sun 12 to 5
- 7 Ink Shop Printmaking Center
 102 West State Street (above Handwork Gallery)
Garden: Delight & Detritus: Susan Weisand
 Susan Weisand's approach to art expresses her closeness to nature: "I am drawn to the concept of art as visual poetry made of images that suggest both memory and mystery." In her exhibit entitled, "Garden: Delights and Detritus," she invites the viewer to question what part of the garden they are observing, the delightful or the detritus.
 277-3884; Tue-Fri 12 to 6, Sat 10 to 4
- 8 State of the Art Gallery 120 West State Street
Annual Invitational: Invited Artists
 SOAG will host its annual invitational during December. Members have invited artists from Ithaca and beyond to exhibit paintings, prints, photographs, fabric art, video art, ceramics and sculpture.
 277-1626; Thu 12 to 6, Fri 12 to 8, Sat, Sun 12 to 5
- 9 Clinton House ArtSpace 116 North Cayuga St.
Rorschach-Mandala: Dan McPheeters
 Symbol and symmetry explored in digital collage.
 273-5072; Mon-Sat 10 to 5:30, Sun 12 to 5
- 10 Sola Gallery 215 North Cayuga St.
 1st floor of DeWitt Mall
Small Treasures 2006
 Something special. Folk art from China, India, Indonesia: a silver horse from Bali, cashmere shawls, burlwood pencil boxes, and much more.
 272-6552; Mon-Sat 10:30 to 5:30
- 11 Upstairs Gallery 215 North Cayuga Street
 2nd floor of DeWitt Mall
Interpretations of the Natural World: Invited Artists
 Artists Betty Boggs, Virginia Cobey, Rebecca Goudin, and Marion Norberg's oils, watercolor, prints and sculpture initiates the holiday season at The Upstairs Gallery.
 272-8614; Tue-Sat 11 to 3

Gallery Night is made possible with public funds from the Community Arts Partnership of Tompkins County/ NYS Council on the Arts Decentralization Program and the Constance Saltonstall Foundation for the Arts, with additional funds from the Tompkins Trust Company. Gallery Night is coordinated by The Ink Shop Printmaking Center. For more information, call 607-277-3884.

Watch for special discounts available at participating galleries on Gallery Night!!

"The most enduring holiday purchase is a gift of art."

Fill out this form and deposit it at one of eleven galleries on Gallery Night, Dec. 1st, 2006, for a drawing to win a $100 gift certificate good towards a purchase in any participating gallery (For more information, call 607-277-3884).

Name: _____

Address: _____

Phone: _____

Email: _____

How did you hear about Gallery Night? _____